Middlesex Community College
COM 226: Journalism I

Fall 2015
3 Credits
Online Course

CRN (section): 3220
Professor: Adam Chiara
Email: achiara@mxcc.edu

Course Description:

This course is designed to teach students the basics of journalism by analyzing the news media and by having students write for the news. Students will also contribute to The Flying Horse, MxCC's student newspaper.

Emphasis will be placed on learning general reporting and news gathering skills. To achieve this, the course will cover areas such as: researching strategies, using critical thinking, learning how to judge appropriate news content, interviewing techniques, constructing stories, revising and editing techniques, fact-checking, and knowing the legal and ethical concerns for journalists.

Course Objectives:

- Students will write a variety of articles which adhere to the best practices of the industry.
- Students will analyze specific aspects of the news media and will then synthesize findings in discussion posts.
- Students will learn the process of how a story is developed, reported on, written, edited, and published.

Grading:

A – Publishable. Style, content, and construction are all excellent. Word count adheres to requirements. No errors.

B – Great. Needs some editing, but the piece is well organized, few errors, and well thought out.

C – Average. Has to be rewritten. Issues with structure, errors, content. Story may be too long or too short. Directions were not followed.

D – Below Average. Student obviously put little time or thought into this assignment. There are careless errors. Has to be rewritten and possibly re-reported. Directions were not followed.

F – Failure. Did not complete assignment, was turned in after the deadline, plagiarized, falsified quotes.

Late work will not be accepted.

If you have questions about a grade on an assignment, or your final grade for the course, please contact me. If a mistake is discovered, I will change your grade accordingly, but some evidence to support your claim is needed.
