Catalog Description
Students will learn how to develop valid interpretations of literature through thoughtful reading of fiction, poetry, drama, and the essay. They will be introduced to literary terminology and the standard critical approaches. They will learn how to use various levels of source materials and also how to express clearly their views about literature in expository writing, including essays with formal research documentation.

Prerequisite: grade C or better in English 101.

Text
Recommended texts: MLA handbook, Dictionary.

Suggested Reading
Foster, Thomas C. How To Read Literature Like A Professor. 1st edition.

General Course Objectives:
● Students will learn the fundamental elements of poetry, drama, fiction, and the literary essay;
● Students will learn fundamentals of literary criticism as a means of approaching literary texts;
● Students will learn how to incorporate both source materials and their own ideas in properly documented essays.
● Overall, Students will increase their appreciation of literature, their skill in reading it, and their ability to convey ideas about it.

Specific Objectives/Outcomes
The student will:

Reading Matter
● Read works of recognized merit in poetry, drama, fiction, and the essay, the readings to be drawn from a variety of historical eras;
● Read works of literary criticism, both primary and secondary sources;

Discovery
● Learn about the historical, social, cultural, and creative contexts that influence the writing of literature from period to period;
● Learn about the relationship between the literature and the lives of the writers;
Analysis

- Learn to interpret literature on the basis of textual evidence;
- Learn to recognize and understand the value of standard literary elements and devices within literary works;
- Learn to recognize conventional themes within and among literary works;
- Learn to distinguish between generally held and private interpretations and to accept that there may be more than one valid interpretation of a given work;

Writing

- Write formal documented essays combining personal analysis with professional analysis gathered from critical texts;
- Write examinations in acceptable prose, demonstrating a grasp of the elements listed above.

Eng 102 Core Competencies:

This course is important because it will strengthen your critical thinking skills as well as your ability to analyze and write about literature. It will meet all general education core competencies but one: Mathematical Reasoning.

- Communication:
  The interactive process through which there is an exchange of verbal and/or nonverbal information.
- Cultural Awareness:
  Acknowledgement that society is diverse with groups of individuals possessing differing beliefs, values, attitudes, and customs that are shared from one generation to the next.
- Social and Civic Responsibility:
  Behavior that demonstrates adherence to legal/ethical standards established by society.
- Critical Thinking:
  Modes of reasoning including analyzing data, evaluating alternatives, setting priorities, and predicting outcomes.
- Mathematical Reasoning:
  Determination of approach, materials, and strategies necessary to solve a problem.
- Technology Utilization:
  Use tools of the trade to achieve a specific outcome.

These core competencies are important personally, academically, and professionally. The outcomes, as stated in the syllabus, are covered in this course.

Behavioral Decorum

The classroom is a place of learning. To maximize learning, please do the following:

- Treat each other with respect and consideration.
- Check out the Online Discussion Board Rules in your Week 1 folder.

Academic Support

- MxCC offers FREE TUTORING on campus (Chapman Hall 711), at the Meriden Center, and online (etutoring.org). For more information, visit the College Learning Center Website (click “College Learning Center” on the www.mxcc.commnet.edu homepage) or call (860) 343-
5770. If you visit a tutor, please bring the assignment with you. Attach the drafts and the work that you did with the tutor to the back of your assignments when they are due in class.

- Computers can be located in Wheaton Hall and Chapman Hall.

Assignments
All work is due on the dates indicated on the syllabus or announced by the professor. Each student is responsible for the material assigned. All assignments, journal prompts, and weekly discussion board topics “disappear” after the due dates. Your work must appear in the Blackboard shell for this course.

If you have problems accessing Blackboard or uploading you must contact the Help Desk. You are responsible for getting your assignments, etc. in on time. If you miss a deadline the grade defaults to a zero. Zeros hurt your final grades.

Journal posts and discussion board entries must appear in the text box and may not be uploaded as attachments.

Only assignments should be uploaded as attachments. (See next section for format information.)

Assignment Format
- Assignments must be word processed, double spaced with margins, as defined by the MLA style. (See https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/ for details)
- Name, instructor name, class, and date will be placed in the upper left corner of page one. (Students may single space this portion.) Page numbers will be placed in the upper right corner.
- Upload in a Word.doc, docx, or PDF format only! Remember to see if your paper appears in the large text box in the middle of the page.
- ACADEMIC SUPPORT: Free tutoring services are provided at the Language Tutoring Center or the Learning Center in Chapman Hall.
- Get a LIBRARY CARD: College students need to be familiar with using the library. Be sure you have a library card both for your town library and for the MXCC library.

Plagiarism and Academic Honesty
- Please submit work that is original to our class and in which you are the sole author. Document your work with the MLA format. Work that violates college policy will result in an automatic zero. As stated in the catalog, “Both plagiarism and cheating are grounds for a student’s immediate dismissal from the college.”
- It is far better to cite too much than not enough. Material that is summarized or paraphrased must be cited; even ideas from an outside source (rewritten in your own words) must be cited. When in doubt, CITE the source.

Academic Honesty Statement
“At Middlesex Community College we expect the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic dishonesty is prohibited in accordance with the Board of Trustees’ Proscribed Conduct Policy in Section 5.2.1 of the Board of Trustees’ Policy Manual. This policy prohibits cheating on examinations, unauthorized collaboration on assignments, unauthorized access to examinations or course materials, plagiarism, and other proscribed activities. Plagiarism is defined as the use of another’s idea(s) or phrase(s) and representing that/those idea(s) as your own, either intentionally or unintentionally.”
Final Grades (based on a 1000 point system):

Students with Disabilities

“Students with physical or learning disabilities who may require accommodations are encouraged to contact the counseling office. After disclosing the nature of the disability, students are urged to discuss their needs with individual instructors. This should be done at the beginning of each semester. Instructors, in conjunction with appropriate college officials, will provide assistance and /or accommodations only to those students who have completed this process.” Students may contact the Office of Disability Support Services at 860 343-5879.

Religious Accommodation Statement

If your religious obligations conflict with the course calendar requirements, and if you wish to request an accommodation, you must make your request in writing prior to the date of the assessment or activity you will miss and preferably at the beginning of the semester. When requesting a make-up quiz, test, exam, assignment, or activity, state the reason for your request and the date(s) on which your religious obligation(s) will conflict with the course calendar requirements. Also, if your religious obligation/holiday is unfamiliar to your instructor, you may be asked to provide a calendar which shows the published date(s) of your religious observance(s) or holiday(s).

Inclement Weather Statement

In the event of inclement weather either before the start of a day when classes are in session or during the school day, you may check for information on delayed openings, college closings, class cancellations, etc by listening to the radio and television stations listed below. Additionally, a message will be posted on the MxCC website at www.mxcc.commnet.edu and an announcement made on the college’s main phone number, (860) 343-5800. (When calling the main phone number, be sure to choose option 1 from the menu for school closings.) If classes are already in session, everyone on campus will be notified of any changes. Decisions to cancel classes or close the college early will be made as soon as practicable.

Course Withdrawal
You may withdraw from this class any time before the end of the 11th week of the semester. A completed and signed withdrawal form must be on file in the Records Office by the deadline in order to receive a “W” on your transcript. If you fail to complete this process on time, you will receive a letter grade at the end of the semester, which will include zeroes for any work not submitted. Course withdrawals may affect financial aid and veteran’s benefits. Please make this decision carefully and with the help of your advisor. See the Academic Calendar and the College Catalog for specific dates and procedures regarding the withdrawal process.
Calendar
This is a tentative schedule which will change according to each class’s needs. You are responsible for noting any changes that occur.
With the exception of the 1st week, weeks will be Sunday through Saturday.
Week 1 will be January 21st (Wednesday – 1st day of classes) through Saturday January 24th midnight.
