Attendance: This is an online class and does not have an on-ground attendance policy. You are responsible for keeping up with all weekly assignments according to the online schedule.

Course Content: This tab on the left side of the Blackboard shell will be the primary tab for accessing your weekly assignments. When you click the tab, you will see a folder for each week of the semester. Within the folder will be each week's objectives, instructions, PowerPoint lectures, quizzes or links to other assignments. .

Weekly Readings: Readings from the textbook will be assigned weekly. Weekly discussions and online quizzes will be based on material from the readings and/or the weekly Powerpoint presentations.

Online Quizzes: Online quizzes will be completed on Blackboard. They will consist of questions from the Powerpoint slides and the weekly readings. These may be worked on over the course of several days. You do NOT have to complete the assignment in one sitting. However, make sure to save each answer as you complete it so that you can return later and pick up where you left off. When you have finished all of the questions, click "save and submit."

Weekly Discussions: Each week, students will be required to participate in discussions on the online discussion board. A minimum of two (2) posts are required in each discussion forum, though students are encouraged to post as many times as they would like. Your initial post will answer the two prompts listed in the directions of the discussion forum. Your answer to each prompt must be a minimum of 150 words (300 words total). Your second post will be a response to a another student's initial post. It must be a minimum of 100 words and is due the following due date after the initial posts are due. Any extra posts above the minimum 3 are of course not subject to the word count minimum. There is an automatic word counter in Blackboard, so please use this when creating your posts. I will participate in the discussion board as well and will make comments throughout the semester.

Discussions will be graded on content as well as the minimum word requirement. To receive full credit, posts must meet the minimum word requirements, must be relevant to the prompt/post, and must be well-written and well thought-out. When the post asks for an opinion, remember that there is no "right" or "wrong" answer, as long as you explain your thoughts

Blackboard Assignments: Blackboard Assignments will be assigned each week throughout the semester and will consist of prompts to which you will respond with organized written responses. For each prompt, there will be a given minimum length for the response. Responses should be well-written, well-thought out, and grammatically correct. These assignments will be more involved than the quizzes. They will cover information from previous Powerpoint slides and assigned readings. They will be posted under the weekly content tab in the corresponding week's folder. The final Blackboard Assignment will be due the last week of class and will be more in-depth than the previous assignments. It will also be worth a higher percentage of your grade.

MAP Format and General Expectations: Taking a course online can make it difficult to stay on top of the material, as you do not have a set time that you are meeting in a classroom each week. In addition, this course is accelerated (about 3 times faster than a normal online course!). It is crucial that you are doing work EVERY DAY this semester to be successful in the course. Do not wait until the day the assignments are due to complete them. If we were to meet on ground for a 5-week course, you would be spending about 9 hours per week in class, and another 12-18 hours outside of class doing work. Please keep that in mind to give yourself a guideline as to how many hours you will need to dedicate to this course each week and each day.

Course Calendar A course schedule is available in Blackboard. Please print this out and keep it near your computer. There is also a link to an interactive calendar, which will have upcoming due dates list. Please check this every week to ensure that you know what assignments are coming up.

No late assignments will be accepted. Please make sure that you are checking the calendar each week to ensure that you are staying up-to-date in your assignments.

Evaluation:

Discussion Board Participation Average:	30%
Weekly Quizzes Average:	25%
Blackboard Assignment Average	30%

Blackboard Learn

Blackboard Learn (BB) will be used in this class. If you have not used this before you can follow the directions below on how to access this resource:

Access Blackboard Learn

1. Open a web browser.
2. Go to my.commnet.edu.
3. Enter your NetID and password, click Login.

NetID: BannerID@student.commnet.edu,

Do not know your NetID? Visit this site to find out:

<https://www.commnet.edu/netid/lookupnetid.asp>

Password: The same password to log on to a campus computer at any of 12 Connecticut community colleges.

If you have never logged on to a campus computer, the initial password is a combination of your first 3 letters of birth month (capitalize the first letter), & (shift+7), and last four digit of your social security number.

For example, if you are born in April and the last four digits of your social security number are 4575, then your initial password is Apr&4575 (case sensitive).

After you logon with the initial password, you will be prompted to change to a new password. The new password MUST have 8 or more characters and satisfy 3 of the 4 rules as follows: Upper case, Lower case, Numbers, and Special character (Example: Flower2010).

4. Access Blackboard

Once you are in myCommNet, click Blackboard icon at upper right. Click on your course name. To go to another course, click My Blackboard (upper right) and click on the course name (MAT*137 for this course).
